Learning Opportunity

Join one of Canada's most powerful voices for reconciliation, Cadmus Delorme in a three part series that will focus on leading Truth and Reconciliation in our schools and school systems. This series is intended for school based and system leaders as they navigate their own journey while still leading others.

All sessions will be recorded and available to registered participants.

Session One:

What have We Truly Inherited? Options to acting with Reconciliation

 This will be a recorded session that will be emailed to participants. It will not be a live session

Session Two:

What is Indigenous World View? The impacts Canadians can learn from Indigenous teachings.

Session Three:

What will the next decade look like? Questions and discussion with the audience.

Cadmus Delorme

Cadmus Delorme, a Cree and Saulteaux, is a citizen of the Cowessess First Nation. Mr. Delorme was an elected Chief from 2016 to 2023. In 2023 Mr. Delorme received an honorary degree from the Saskatchewan Polytechnic Institution. In 2021 Cadmus achieved an Institute of Corporate Director designation. In 2016 he received a Master of Public Administration from the Johnson- Shoyama Graduate School of Public Policy and in 2013 a Bachelor of Business Administration along with a Certificate in Hospitality, Tourism and Gaming Entertainment Management from the First Nations University of Canada (FNUUniv).

Mr. Delorme served in several capacities while a student in high school and university, including vice-president and president. In 2012, Cadmus was awarded the Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal for his student leadership and the hospitality he showed to King Charles III and his Queen Consort Camilla when they visited First Nations University of Canada in 2012. In 2022 Mr. Delorme was awarded the Queen Elizabeth Platinum Jubilee. In 2015 Cadmus was named one of CBC Saskatchewan's Future 40, which celebrates the province's new generation of leaders, builders, and change-makers under the age of 40. During Mr. Delorme's time as Chief, his focus was on political sovereignty, economic self-sustainability, and cultural rejuvenation. In April 2023 Mr. Delorme decided to not run for a third term and now is Partner to OneHoop Advisory Services and Partner to Flowing River Capital Group which focuses on enhancing Truth and Reconciliation Call to Action #92, Business and Reconciliation and #57, Professional Development.

Mr. Delorme lives with his wife Kimberly, brother-in-law, daughter and two sons on the Cowessess First Nation.
